

Management Accounting Research

David Solomons Prize

The Editors and Editorial Board of Management Accounting Research are pleased to announce a prize of £1,000 for the best paper in each annual volume of the journal. The prize winning paper will be selected by the Editors with advice from the Editorial Board.

The prize, which is funded by the journal's publishers Academic Press, will be first awarded for the best paper in Volume 12 (2001).

The David Solomons Prize is named in recognition of Professor Solomons' extensive contributions to management accounting research over many years. The Editors and Editorial Board are especially grateful to Mrs Miriam Solomons for her agreement to the naming of this prize.
