Copyright Assignment

(To be signed by each Author)*

Copyright assignment: In consideration of the European Association for the Study of the Liver (EASL) taking action to review and edit my submission, the undersigned Authors, jointly and severally, hereby transfer, convey, and assign all right, title and interest therein, including any and all copyrights to the EASL. In addition to reproduction in conventional printed form, your article will be stored electronically. Your assignment of copyright signifies your agreement to the journal making arrangements to include your paper in document delivery services, CD-ROMS and electronic databases, etc., worldwide. Should the EASL not publish the aforesaid submission, EASL agrees to release its rights therein.

Authorship Responsibility: I, the undersigned Author, certify that I have participated sufficiently in the intellectual content, the analysis of data, if applicable, and the writing of the manuscript, to take public responsibility for it. I have reviewed the final version of the manuscript, believe it represents valid work, and approve it for publication. As an Author of this article, I certify that none of the material in the manuscript has been published previously, is included in another manuscript or is currently under consideration for publication elsewhere. I also certify that this article has not been accepted for publication elsewhere, not have I assigned any right or interest in the manuscript to any third party. Moreover, should the Editors of the Journal of Hepatology request data upon which the manuscript is based, I shall produce it.

Financial Disclosure: I, the undersigned Author, certify that I have no commercial associations (e.g. consultancies, stock ownership, equity interests, patent-licensing arrangements, etc) that pose a conflict of interest in connection with the submitted article, except as disclosed on a separate attachment. Funding sources supporting the work and my institutional or corporate affiliations are acknowledged.

Institutional Review Board/Animal Care Committee Approval: I, the undersigned Author, certify that my institution has approved the protocol for any investigation involving humans or animals and that all experimentation was conducted in conformity with ethical and humane principles of research.
