This 110+ volume series targets graduate-level and professional readers who seek high-level summaries of recent advances in research literature. These readers want sophisticated summaries of economic issues and perspectives to improve their teaching, writing, and research skills.

◆ The series published its first volume in 1981, providing economists with comprehensive summaries of large fields, such as monetary economics, labor economics, and the like.
◆ Volumes covered all the relevant literature and were published 10+ years apart.
◆ The series’ signature characteristic is its ability to attract top experts to summarize and judge the scholarship that defines their fields.

Handbook of Behavioral Economics, Volume 1  Coming Soon
Serial Volume Editors: Douglas Bernheim, Stefano Dellavigna, David Laibson
Editors: Douglas Bernheim, David Laibson, Matthew Rabin
Hardcover ISBN: 9780444633743
Handbook of Behavioral Economics: Applications presents behavioral economics concepts and tools that are written by, and for, economists. Its authors share a belief that revolves around enriching behavioral economics rather than destroying or replacing standard models. Their authoritative perspectives give them an edge not enjoyed by psychologists writing about economics. Specific chapters in this release include topics covering Personal finance, Corporate finance, Public finance, Asset Markets, Macroeconomics, Industrial Organization, Development Economics, and Labor.

Handbook of Computational Economics, Volume 4  Coming Soon
Editors: Cars Hommes, Blake LeBaron
Hardcover ISBN: 9780444641311
Handbook of Computational Economics: Heterogeneous Agent Models, Volume Four, focuses on heterogeneous agent models, emphasizing recent advances in macroeconomics (including DSGE), finance, empirical validation and experiments, networks and related applications. Capturing the advances made since the publication of Volume Two (Tesfatsion & Judd, 2006), it provides high-level literature with sections devoted to Macroeconomics, Finance, Empirical Validation and Experiments, Networks, and other applications, including Innovation Diffusion in Heterogeneous Populations, Market Design and Electricity Markets, and a final section on Perspectives on Heterogeneity.

Handbook of Environmental Economics, Volume 4  Coming Soon
Editors: Partha Dasgupta, Subhrendu Pattanayak, Kerry Smith
Hardcover ISBN: 97804444537720

Handbook of the Economics of Marketing, Volume 1: Marketing and Economics  Coming Soon
Editors: Jean-Pierre Dube, Peter Rossi
Hardcover ISBN: 9780444637598
Handbook of the Economics of Marketing, Volume One: Marketing and Economics mixes empirical work in industrial organization with quantitative marketing tools, presenting tactics that help researchers tackle problems with a balance of intuition and skepticism. It offers critical perspectives on theoretical work within economics, delivering a comprehensive, critical, up-to-date, and accessible review of the field that has always been missing. This literature summary of research at the intersection of economics and marketing is written by, and for, economists, and the book’s authors share a belief in analytical and integrated approaches to marketing, emphasizing data-driven, result-oriented, pragmatic strategies.
