A new academic profile page for Tilburg University: too little too late?

Frank Diepmaat

Pure conference Philadelphia 31-10-2018
“I am not planning to maintain another profile in Pure, the University’s website, or elsewhere. I keep my own website up to date and I think that’s already a lot of work…. I think it is too little too late, especially if it has such limited possibilities.”

Experimental economics in antitrust

Chapter in Book/Report/Conference proceeding > Chapter > Scientific > peer review

H.T. Normann
W. Müller

Research Group: Economics
Department of Economics

This chapter assesses the scope and the specific contribution of laboratory experiments for antitrust. It reviews experiments that have addressed specific antitrust issues, problems, and institutions. The chapter mainly covers experimental studies on collusion (tacit and explicit, conscious parallelism) and exclusionary behavior (predatory pricing, foreclosure, exclusive dealing and bundling).

“I have to update it myself. I keep forgetting it (and also dislike doing it, because it costs quite a bit of time) and it seems that it is never up to date. Also when looking up other researchers”

Researchers with a non-University profile page

- None: 80%
- Personal: 10%
- Twitter: 4%
- LinkedIn: 3%
- Other (ie Researchgate, Academia etc): 2%
- Combination 2 or more: 1%
Three objectives:

1. Reuse data out of other systems:
   - Daily sync: HR-, Education system, IdM
   - Migration- sync once: Experts & Expertise

2. Encourage researchers to update profile information, publications, activities etc. in Pure

3. Implement cloud portal Pure

Your Academic Profile Page in seven steps:

2. Update your profile (in English) via https://pure.uvt.nl/admin.
3. Create or connect an ORCID in Pure.
4. Upload your profile photo to Pure.
5. Update your ancillary activities (in English) in My Employee Portal.
6. Enter your publications and activities in Pure.
7. Increase your findability: add a link to your Academic Profile Page on your non-university profile pages and vice versa.

Research interests
My teaching and research expertise comprises philosophy of religion (especially various aspects of religion on the public sphere, such as religious tolerance, violence, diversity, truth), metaphysics, philosophy of culture, and history of modern philosophy (especially Hegel and his contemporaries).

Career
Since 2006 I work as full professor of philosophy at Tilburg University (School of Catholic Theology). From 2009 till 2013 I served as vice-dean for research, and in 2013 I was interim dean of the TST. From 1991 till 2006 I was full professor of philosophy at the Catholic Theological University at Utrecht, which merged with Tilburg University on July 1st 2006. From 1993 till 1996 and from 2003 till 2006 I was rector of the CTU. From 1997 till 2003 I was president of the Dutch Catholic School Council (a part-time position). From 1983 till 1991 I taught philosophy at the University of Theology and Pastoral Care at Heerlen, first as assistant professor and from 1989 as full professor.

Teaching
In the BA of the Faculty of Catholic Theology I teach the course Systematic Philosophy; in the MA I teach the courses Christian/Catholic identity and the

Personal Identification

Under “Personal Identification,” first and last name, nationality, some name variants, title, and employee ID are imported from My Employee Portal (Human Resource system of Tilburg University) on a daily basis.

If your nationality has been entered incorrectly, please contact your line manager or HR advisor. You can change your name and titles yourself in My Employee Portal. If, in My Employee Portal, your title is not available in the pull-down list, you can contact the HR Service Center (hservices@tilburguniversity.edu).
First comments after go live of portal

- In use since October 16, 2018
- “New profiles look very nice!”
- Big improvement compared to E&E
- Increased registration of publications and activities
  - External positions shown too prominently
  - PhD dissertations shown in publication list professors
  - Emphasis on quantity by showing graphic with publications
For a successful implementation of profile pages in the Pure cloud portal:

• Make maximum use of profile data already recorded in other university systems
• Point out the benefits of using the university profile page to researchers
• Let researchers link as much as possible to their other profile pages
• Guide your researchers in keeping their profile pages up to date with help texts, FAQs and a customized manual
