“... view the ability to go in and use Digital Commons to publish [student] work ... as a way to enable our students to transition their homework and some of the projects they do in the classes into lines on their resume that they can show off to the rest of the world”

— Jeremy Evert, Assistant Professor, Computer Science & Engineering Technology, Southwestern Oklahoma State University, USA

“Digital Commons is integral to showcasing the caliber of faculty at CCT who are engaged in a wide variety of scholarly activity ... [It] will be equally important in showcasing high quality research generated by students as part of their academic studies.”

— Neil Gallagher, President, CCT College Dublin, Ireland

Secure, scalable, cloud-hosted — and no IT investment

Digital Commons™
Promote your institution’s experts & expertise to a global audience

Enhance your institution’s reputation and readership with a high-quality publishing program that reflects the unique expertise of your university.

"[The Seton Hall] eRepository allows the University’s research to become a viable worldwide resource.”
— Sebastian Derry, Assistant Dean for Public Services, Seton Hall University Libraries, USA

Increase research standing & collaboration opportunities

Put your institution’s research and scholarship on a global stage to increase opportunities for collaboration and improve reputation.

"By capturing the intellectual output of Montclair State University, the repository provides visibility and influence to a worldwide audience, which, in turn, opens up new avenues for further research, innovation, and collaboration, and supports the University’s mission as a Carnegie-designated high-level research doctoral university and state-designated public research institution.”
— Karen Ramsden, Research & Projects Specialist, Library Administration, Montclair State University, USA

"Our institutional repository provides an essential service that aids in increasing the visibility of our University scholars and encouraging collaboration with other researchers and institutions worldwide.”
— Willard Gingerich, Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs, Montclair State University, USA
