

African Journal of Emergency Medicine

Author statement form

It is important that you return this form upon submission. We will not publish your article without completion, signature and return of this form.

---

Title of paper:

1. African Relevance

African relevance is a short collection of bullet points that convey the relevance of the article in the African context. Please include 3 to 5 bullet points (maximum 85 characters per bullet point including spaces).

Not required for commentary, editorials, correspondence and erratum- simply state: not required in first box below

(...continued on next page)

2. Dissemination of results

Provide a brief statement on how findings of this research were disseminated to the community from, or within which it was collected.

Example: Results from this study (research/ trail/ etc.) was shared with staff members at AAA hospital emergency centre through an informal presentation. The results were also published in the hospital's newsletter.

Not required for review articles, practical pearls, concepts, editorials, correspondence and erratum- simply state: not required in box below

3. Author contribution

Please provide each author's proportional contribution to this paper. If more than six authors contributed to this paper, please include additional authors and their proportional contribution in your cover letter.

Author name	Contribution (%)
1.	%
2.	%
3.	%
4.	%
5.	%
6.	%
Total	%

(Must add up to 100%)

There are more than 6 authors for this manuscript. I have entered the additional authors and their contributions in the cover letter.

(...continued on next page)

Please justify inclusion of all authors contributing less than 1% in the box below

Your justification should reference the ICMJE recommendations for authorship. These are based on the following 4 criteria: (1) Substantial contributions to the conception or design of the work; or the acquisition, analysis, or interpretation of data for the work; AND (2) Drafting the work or revising it critically for important intellectual content; AND (3) Final approval of the version to be published; AND (4) Agreement to be accountable for all aspects of the work in ensuring that questions related to the accuracy or integrity of any part of the work are appropriately investigated and resolved.

Not applicable

---

Submit the completed form along with your completed manuscript where prompted by EVISE