Letters to the Editor

These are objective, constructive, or educational critiques of papers published in Clinical Therapeutics. Accepted letters will be sent to the author of the original paper for a response. Each letter and response is published together. Alternatively, letters may focus on topical issues that are of interest to readers of Clinical Therapeutics.

Text: 1000 words
References: 5
Graphics: 1